Can a contract be signed on behalf of a company or a close corporation still to be registered?

Yes. The registration of the company or close corporation however has to be finalized before the transfer can be registered in the Deeds Office. This can consequently delay the registration process.

If, however, the process is dealt with properly from the start, no delay should occur.

Volker Krüger, Van Velden-Duffey Inc.