Can both spouses be held liable for debts in respect of household necessities with a marriage out of community of property?

Yes. Section 23 of the Matrimonial Properties Act, 1984 stipulates that both spouses are liable for such debts irrespective of which of the spouses incurred the debt