How long does it take to get permission from the bank to proceed with the registration of my mortgage bond?

Anything between two and seven business days after we have lodged all relevant documents with the bank. This depends on the relevant bank.

Volker Krüger