How old must a person be to get married?

A person 18 years of age or older can get married without parental consent. A person under 18 years of age, however, needs parental consent.